

Dedication of the George W. Bush Presidential Center

Dallas, 27 April 2013--Ambassador and Mrs. Sichan Siv this week attended the dedication of the George W. Bush Presidential Center on the campus of Southern Methodist University in Dallas. To honor the historic celebration were five presidents and five first ladies: Jimmy & Rosalind Carter, George & Barbara Bush, Bill & Hillary Clinton, George & Laura Bush, Barack & Michelle Obama.

Also in attendance were foreign dignitaries, governors, senators, congressmen, state & local officials, thousands of Bush-Cheney alumni, friends, supporters, and the American public. The Bush Center is the 13th presidential library and museum in the National Archives and Records Administration system. It houses 43,000 artifacts, 4 million photos, 70 million pages of paper records and 80 terabytes (about 1 billion pages) of emails for the American people to view. <http://www.bushcenter.org>
